RE: Freedom of Information Request
The Chemical Recovery System Site, Elyria, Ohio.

Dear Ms. Sheppard-Johnson:

I would like to request the following material pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act (5 U.S.C. Section 552).

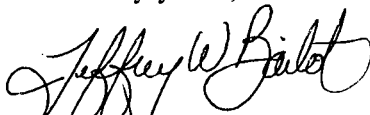

Crompton Manufacturing Company Inc.<sup>1</sup> recently received a CERCLA section 104(e) information request from U.S. EPA, Region V, directed to Uniroyal, Inc. (dated March 2, 2001) concerning the above-referenced site ("Site"). Please provide the undersigned with all information including but not limited to any written materials such as correspondence, notations, reports of laboratory test results, records site inspection reports, and agency memoranda which it believes demonstrates that Uniroyal Inc. contributed to contamination at the Site. This request <sup>1</sup>Uniroyal Chemical Company, Inc. was formed as a subsidiary of Uniroyal, Inc. in 1985 and subsequently was sold by Uniroyal, Inc. in October 1986. Uniroyal, Inc. was dissolved in December 1986. In December 2000, Uniroyal Chemical Company Inc. changed its name to Crompton Manufacturing Company Inc.

includes but is not limited to the summary of waste shipment manifests and related waste manifests.

I will arrange payment for the cost of copying the requested materials upon receipt of a bill from your office. If the copying costs are in excess of $100, please contact the undersigned.

Sincerely yours,

Jeffrey W. Bailot
